

Let's Fit You With a Corset That Will Give You Greatest Comfort and Satisfaction

Buying a Corset is on a par with buying a pair of shoes. Unless the shoes fit you, it matters not what price you've paid; they are practically worthless. If you buy an uncomfortable Corset, not alone are you continually reminded that it is uncomfortable, but you can never get your clothes to fit the way you want them to.

And that is why we say, "Let's fit you with a Corset that will give you the greatest comfort and satisfaction." The salesperson in charge of our Corset Department has studied the Corset problem and knows just which model to recommend for your particular figure. You might decide to buy a long-waisted model, merely because it looks good on a form, but it may not be the model best suited to your figure. We will tell you just which model you should purchase, in order to get the greatest comfort and improve the fit of your garments.

New Front-Laced Corsets from $2.00 to $8.00

It is only in recent years that the Front-Laced Corset has become so very popular, and if you've worn one you will know just why. The Gossard Front-Laced Corsets are made on scientific lines. They are made to give to the wearer the greatest comfort, yet moulding the figure to prevailing fashion tendencies. What is more, a good fitting Corset has much to do with your good health.

These Front-Laced Corsets are made of White or Figured Batiste, and they are well boned. Do not bind the body at any point of contact.

New Model Corsets from $1.00 to $3.00

While we do not attempt to say that these Corsets are equal to the higher grades, yet we will say that they are fashioned along the same lines. They are made of good quality Coutil or Batiste. Have low bust and long hip lines. These lace in the back.

New Brassieres from 50c to $2.00

Made of exceptionally good materials and trimmed with Laces, etc. We specialize on such makes as Gossard, DeVoice and Ovida.

Interesting addresses and conferences marked the 40th annual convention of Washington county Christian Endeavor at the Congregational church in Orange Center, Saturday. Among those who spoke during the day were Rev. Bert J. Leigh of the First Baptist church, and Rev. J. F. Piani of the Italian Baptist mission. Others from Barre who were present were: Earl M. Lewis, Miss Violet Scott, Miss H. Ruby Lewis, Harvey B. Partridge, Claude Partridge and Miss Margaret Geake.

Practically every granite plant in the Barre belt was closed down to-day on account of the holiday to-morrow. When the 11 o'clock whistle sounded Saturday forenoon, most of the employees were told to return to work until Wednesday morning, as the manufacturers did not propose to steam up for a single day at the beginning of the week. Houghton, Thomas Garrity and Thomas Nelson. The carriers will leave the city in an automobile at 9:30 o'clock, returning immediately after the joint banquet of carriers and clerks in the evening.

At the city council meeting, slated for to-night on account of the holiday, which occurs on the regular session night this week, those who oppose the action of the city fathers in extending tolerance to the Mormon missionaries in their request to speak in a public square, will have an opportunity to present their case against the Church of Jesus Christ and Latter Day Saints. Prof. P. Gropelli, leader of the Christoforo Colombo band, states that he is going before the council with a request that his organization of young Italian musicians be assigned two or three of the concerts provided for in a $1,000 appropriation for outdoor music at the beginning of the fiscal year. Mr. Gropelli will tell the council of what is being accomplished in the way of advancing the interests of music among the younger Italians of Barre. In times past the band has given its services freely to public celebrations, etc.

Robert A. Cartmell, who lived in the Middlebury National bank, died suddenly Saturday night. He was 69 years of age. Mr. Cartmell had been about as usual, although in ill health for some time. It is thought that disease of the kidneys was the cause of death. He represented Middlebury in the legislature of 1898 and 1899, and was Addison county senator in 1902.

Mr. Cartmell was born in Lancashire, England, July 24, 1847. He came to Canada when but 17. When he was 20 he came to Vermont and engaged in the pulp business at East Barre. Later he moved to Bellows Falls to become superintendent of the two mills of the Fall Mountain Paper company. With others he formed the Green Mountain Pulp company at Middlebury and for a time he had an interest in the Baldens Falls pulp mills, later erecting mills at Huntington Falls and Weybridge.

His first marriage was to Jessie H. Gammell of Barre. His second wife was Mrs. Lucy E. Shade of Middlebury. He leaves four brothers, Isaac Cartmell and John Cartmell, who live in England, Miles Cartmell of Lennoxville, Can., and Albert Cartmell of Palestine, Texas; and one nephew, James R. Cartmell of Middlebury.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Stephen's church.

He was an extensive shipper of merino sheep, cattle, and mules to Africa, South America and Australia.

PROMINENT IN MIDDLEBURY.

Robert A. Cartmell Died Suddenly Saturday Night.

Middlebury, May 28.—Robert A. Cartmell, vice-president of the Middlebury National bank, died suddenly Saturday night. He was 69 years of age. A Shakespearean School Garden.

There are, in this country and abroad, Shakespearean gardens of note. Why may not every country schoolhouse have one? As you ride through the broad states of the Middle West, you will observe that the largest, bluest building in every small town is the schoolhouse! The schoolyard is often a desert of cinders where only Mayweed can grow. Let us make this thirteenth century of Shakespeare's death a year of beauty in small places. Do you think that growing up in a beautiful place has no bearing on a child's patriotism? It would be easy to make rural America as lovely as rural England, for we need but cultivate a community spirit. Why not share with the children our shrubs and vines, our trees and flowers?—Katherine Gurling in the Countrywide Magazine for March.
